

Awareness of Dementia Level 2 Award

Overview

This qualification forms part of a new suite of qualifications and assess learners' knowledge and understanding in the area of care for individuals with dementia.

It consists of four mandatory units which assess learners' general awareness of dementia care issues; their knowledge of person-centred approaches to the care and support of individuals with dementia, their understanding of factors that can influence communication and the impact that diversity, equality and inclusion can have on the individual's experience of dementia.

This qualification can be used as professional development for those who wish to gain knowledge in this specialist area of practice.

The knowledge gained through the achievement of this qualification can be used towards the achievement of the Level 2 Certificate in Dementia Care as well as to the Level 2 Diploma in Health and Social Care.

Benefits

- Learners will have an opportunity to gain recognition for knowledge and understanding of specialist area of practice
- There will be opportunity to transfer credit between qualifications
- Learners will have the opportunity for both full qualification and unit certification
- There will be opportunity to progress within the suite of qualifications and to other OCR work-based qualifications

For further information visit the OCR website link below

<http://www.ocr.org.uk/qualifications/type/qcf/hsc/index.html>

Awareness of Dementia Level 3 Award

Overview

This qualification forms part of a new suite of qualifications and assess learners' knowledge and understanding of practice in the area of care for individuals with dementia.

It consists of four mandatory units which assess learners' general awareness of dementia care issues; their understanding of the administration of medication, the role of communication and interaction and the diversity of individuals with dementia.

This qualification can be used as professional development for those who wish to gain knowledge in this specialist area of practice.

The knowledge gained through the achievement of this qualification can be used towards the achievement of the Level 3 Certificate in Dementia Care as well as to the Level 3 Diploma in Health and Social Care.

Benefits

- Learners will have an opportunity to gain recognition for knowledge and understanding of specialist area of practice
- There will be opportunity to transfer credit between qualifications
- Learners will have the opportunity for both full qualification and unit certification
- There will be opportunity to progress within the suite of qualifications and to other OCR work-based qualifications

For further information visit the OCR website link below

<http://www.ocr.org.uk/qualifications/type/qcf/hsc/index.html>

Dementia Care Level 2 Certificate

Overview

This qualification forms part of a new suite of qualifications which assess learners' knowledge, understanding and skills in the area of care for individuals with dementia.

The qualification is aimed at those who are already working in care roles with individuals with dementia and provide an opportunity to have their knowledge and skills recognised through the achievement of a nationally accredited qualification.

It assesses learners' competence, ie their ability to competently perform a range of tasks in areas of practice such as person centred working, communication and interaction, equality and diversity, individuals' rights and choices.

To achieve a full certificate, candidates must gain a total of 18 credits.

- 14 credits from the achievement of five mandatory units.
- At least 4 credits from units in the optional group.

The achievement of units from this qualification can be used towards the achievement of the Level 2 Diploma in Health and Social Care.

Benefits

- Choice and flexibility through a diverse range of optional units
- Opportunity to gain recognition for their competence in specialist area of practice
- Opportunity to transfer credit between qualifications
- Opportunity for both full qualification and unit certification
- Opportunity to progress within the suite of qualifications and to other OCR work-based qualification

For further information visit the OCR website link below

<http://www.ocr.org.uk/qualifications/type/qcf/hsc/index.html>

Dementia Care Level 3 Certificate

Overview

This qualification forms part of a new suite of qualifications which assess learners' knowledge, understanding and skills in the area of care for individuals with dementia.

The qualification is aimed at those who are already working in care roles with individuals with dementia and provide an opportunity to have their knowledge and skills recognised through the achievement of a nationally accredited qualification.

It assesses learners' competence, ie their ability to competently perform a range of tasks in areas of practice such as communication and interaction, equality and diversity, individuals' rights and choices.

To achieve a full certificate, candidates must gain a total of 21 credits.

- 15 credits from the achievement of five mandatory units
- At least 6 credits from units in the optional group

The achievement of units from this qualification can be used towards the achievement of the Level 3 Diploma in Health and Social Care.

Benefits

- Choice and flexibility through a diverse range of optional units
- Opportunity to gain recognition for their competence in specialist area of practice
- Opportunity to transfer credit between qualifications
- Opportunity for both full qualification and unit certification
- Opportunity to progress within the suite of qualifications and to other OCR work-based qualifications

For further information visit the OCR website link below

<http://www.ocr.org.uk/qualifications/type/qcf/hsc/index.html>